There is little to report at this time.

Venice Beske talked with Colleen Curry, who is the curator of the Yellowstone Heritage and Research Center. Colleen is willing to do a tour for anyone who wants to drive to Gardiner Montana on their own. The time of the tour is still the same, 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday October 11, 2005. She asks that everyone come at that time rather than "dropping in." She is willing to do a tour for up to 20 folks and there is no need to let her know ahead of time.

We're sorry that the bus tour did not work. We had to close this to registration early in order to know if the contract could be fulfilled, alas; it could not. Perhaps those wishing to see Yellowstone can arrange a self guided tour.

Respectfully,
Ara Anderson
